INTRODUCTION.

As soon as God created our first Parents, Adam and Eve, in his own image, holy and happy, and placed them in the Garden of Eden, to dress it and to keep it. Their happiness depended on their obedience to the moral law of their Creator, which will be explained hereafter, and to which all rational creatures ever have been, and ever must be subjected.

But life is the free gift of God to every living creature; and to convince our first Parents that it was so, God declared to them that they should surely die, if they should presume to eat of the fruit of a certain tree, which he commanded them not to eat. This is commonly called the covenant of works, but the name is improper. No work was required of our first Parents, which has not been required of man under every dispensation of religion; and their exemption from death appears to have been suspended, on a positive rather than on a moral condition, to keep them constantly in mind that God being the Author of the first breath of life, he sustains all creatures live and move and have their being. Through the temptation of the Devil, they ate of the forbidden tree, lost the favor or grace of God, and brought death, the wages of sin, on themselves and all their children. In consequence of this, all mankind are "by nature born in sin, children of wrath," and should perish for ever, but that God so loved the world, that He gave His Eternal Son Jesus Christ our Lord, to become man, to be born at Bethlehem of the Virgin Mary, to fulfil all righteousness, and to die on Mount Calvary upon the Cross to save sinners; on the third day He rose again from the dead, and is now in Heaven interceding for us.

The Gospel is the glad tidings of this Salvation, and freely offers pardon, Divine favor, and Eternal life, in the name of Christ to all who truly repent and believe in Him.

This is the New Covenant, and as it is the foundation of all true Religion, the Catechism begins with it. By means of Christian Baptism we are given up to God, and taken into covenant with Him, and as children, thus dedicated to God, must be instructed in right principles, the Catechism next teaches them The Christian Creed, what they are to believe.

But as right practice ought to follow right principles, it proceeds to set before them, The Christian Duty; and as the fallen nature can do nothing without the Grace of God, it instructs them what to ask for in The Christian Prayer: and that they may be roused to Holy diligence, by being daily reminded of the solemn vows by which they were consecrated to the Lord—and that they may be taught to look for pardon, grace and consolation, through the Holy Ordinances of Christ their Saviour, the Catechism closes with an explanation of the design and use of The Christian Sacraments.

The Christian Prayer.

Catechist. My good child know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thyself, nor to walk in the commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me hear therefore, if thou canst say the Lord's Prayer.

Answer.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven: Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. — Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Quest. What doest thou of God in this Prayer?

Ans. I desire my Lord God our Heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him, as we ought to do. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies: and that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins: and that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers, ghostly and bodily; and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say Amen. So be it.

ever and ever?" Ep. 3, an. Rom. 14, xxi.

29. What do you chiefly learn by the Creed, the Ten Commandments, and the Lord's Prayer?

Ans. I learn from the Creed, the rule of my faith; from the Ten Commandments, the rule of my obedience; and from the Lord's Prayer, the full of my desires.

SECTION.
The Christian Sacraments.

Question.
HOW many Sacraments hath
Christ ordained in his Church?

Answer. Two only, as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say,
Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Quest. What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Ans. I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace, given unto us, ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Quest. How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

Ans. Two; the outward visible sign, and the inward spiritual grace.

On Baptism.

Quest. What is the outward visible sign or form of Baptism?

Ans. Water: wherein the person is baptised In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Quest. What is the inward and spiritual grace?

Ans. A death unto sin; and a new birth unto righteousness; For being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Quest. What is required of persons to be baptised?

Ans. Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

Quest. Why then are Infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Ans. Because they promise them both by their Sureties; which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

In the Mosaic Covenant which was typical of the Christian, there were likewise two Sacraments—Circumcision and the feast of the Passover.

1. Were those superseded by the Christian Sacraments? Ans. Yes.

2. What Sacrament succeeded Circumcision?

3. What Sacrament succeeded the Passover?

4. What are they means and pledges of?

5. What doth Water used in Baptism represent?

6. In whose name were you baptised?

7. What is the effect of Inward Spiritual Grace?

8. What are you and all mankind by nature?

9. What doth Baptism require?

10. What doth true repentance forsake?

11. What doth true Faith believe?

12. Who promised for Infants at their baptism that they should perform these requisite conditions?

13. Are baptised Infants when they come of age bound to fulfil that promise?

Ans. Yes, because all men are bound to fulfil the will of God as soon as it is distinctly known to them, and the promise of the Godfathers and Godmothers is given only as an assurance to the Church, that the Infant to be baptised shall be properly instructed as soon as he shall be able to learn, in the principles of the Christian Religion.

14. Why doth the Catechism conclude with the seals of the New Covenant, Baptism and the Lord's Supper?

Ans. Because by baptism we are admitted into covenant with God; by the Lord's Supper we renew and confirm our covenant engagement.

15. Why are there two Sacraments said to be generally necessary to Salvation?

Ans. Because it is the duty of all who have it in their power to observe them, for they are more than means; they are pledges of God's favor; not only signs, but earnest and assuring signs of it.

16. What do you mean by being born in Sin, and the Children of Wrath?

Ans. We hereby confess that we are by nature in a state of wickedness, and condemnation into which the fall of our first Parents brought mankind. "Original sin" is the fault and corruption of the nature of man, whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and is of his own nature inclined to evil." Article II.

17. What is it to be made a Child of Grace?

Ans. To be taken into Covenant with God, and to be renewed by the Holy Ghost. Rom. 8, iv.

22. What are the Scripture characters of true Faith?

Ans. Faith purifies the heart—overcometh the world—works by love, and maintains good works. 1 John, 5, iv. Gal. 5, vi. Titus 3, i.

23. What blessings are immediately connected with Repentance and Faith?

Ans. All the blessings of the everlasting

God. — God baptizeth and abisolveth

 "I believe His Holy Gospel." — Liturgy —
 Matt. 28. 19. and Rom. 10. 10.

24. How does Baptism confer and signify these truths? — Rom. 6. iv.

 justification of man!

Ans. "We are accounted righteous before God only for the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by Faith, and not for our own works or deservings."

26. Does the Gospel of Christ encourage every man however wicked to repent, and turn to God? — Isaiah 55. vii. 2 Pet. 3. ix.

27. What is the general nature of Baptism?

Ans. "Baptism is not only a sign of a Christian profession, but also a sign and instrument of regeneration or new birth."
 — Art. 27.

28. What benefits are derived from Baptism?

Ans. They who receive Baptism rightly, are grafted into the Church; the promises of forgiveness of sin and of our adoption to be the Sons of God by the Holy Ghost are visibly signed and sealed." — Art. 27.

Q. On what ground is the right of Infants to Christian Baptism founded?

A. The Covenant which God made with Abraham. "I will be a God, to thee and to thy seed, and the promise of the Gospel to you and to your children." Gen. 17. vii. Acts 2. xxxix. "Suffer little Children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God." Mark 10. xiv.

was called the body and blood of Christ?

Ans. By the same figure as the Paschal Lamb was called the passover; and Christ is said to be a Rock,—“they drank of that Spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ.” 1 Cor. 10. iv.

31. Are the bread and wine changed after consecration?

Ans. No—for they are called by Saint Paul bread and wine after they are consecrated. 1 Cor. 10. xvi. and 1 Cor. 11. xiv.

32. How are our souls “strengthened and refreshed by the body and blood of Christ?”

Ans. “By the remembrance of His meritorious cross and passion, our faith, hope and charity, are called into exertion and increased.” John 6. xxv.

33. Is it the duty of a Christian frequently to attend the Lord’s Supper?

Ans. Our Lord’s commandment is “Do this in remembrance of me.” Luke 22. 19. Acts 20. vii.

34. Why should a Christian Communicant examine himself whether he repent truly of his former sins, purposing stedfastly to lead a new life, and whether he has a lively Faith in Christ his Saviour?

Ans. Because the Holy Scripture enjoins it. 1 Cor. 11. xxiii. 1 Cor. 5. vii. and viii.

35. How doth the Holy Sacrament teach us to be "in charity with all men?"

Ans. It teaches us to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 1 Cor. 10. xvii. Eph. 4. iii.

36. What will charity with all men inculcate? Phil. 4. viii. Eph. 4. xxxi. xxxii.

37. What duties will it inculcate towards enemies? Math. 5. xlv. Rom. 12. xxi. xxii.

38. What is the meaning of that very awful passage of Scripture, 1 Cor. 11. xxix.?

Ans. St. Paul alludes to such as receive the Holy Sacrament irreverently, disorderly and prophanely—who were then visited with temporal judgments—such as weakness, sickness and death. 1 Cor. 11. xx. xxiv.

39. What is the general nature of the Holy Communion?

Ans. It is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another, but is rather a Sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death. Art. 28.

Ans. The Communion and fellowship of the Church triumphant in glory. Matth. 28. xxix.

Ans. A solemn dedication of ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable holy and lively sacrifice unto the Lord. 1 Cor. 6. xx.

PART II.

1st SECTION.

On Infant Baptism.

1. On what authority do you build your practice of Infant Baptism?

Ans. In Acts 2. xxxviii. xxxix. an express precept is implied, besides the grace and goodness of God permits Infants to be members of his Church.

2. What further proof can you produce?

Ans. Infants were admitted members of the Church under the Law—Gen. 17. vii. and upon this the Infant as well as the Adult was circumcised and presented to the Lord, that is, entered into Church/fellowship.

3. But how do you prove that circumcision was a Religious ordinance?

Ans. It had all the properties which a Religious ordinance now possesses.

1. It was a token of God's Covenant in Christ. Gen. 17. xi. Gal. 3. xvi. xvii.

2. A sign of the grace of God in the heart, that is, the circumcision of the heart. Deut. 10. vi. Rom. 2. xlviii. xlix. Phil. 3. iii.

3. A Seal of the Righteousness of Faith. Rom. 4. xi. II. Tim. 1.

4. A token of Interest in the promise. Rom. 3. ii. and 15. viii.

5. It admitted to the Church, and constituted a child of God by adoption. Rom. 9. iv. Eph. 2. xi. xii.

6. It obliged to obedience. Gal. 3. iii. Rom. 2. xiv.

7. The Lord Jesus was himself a Minister of the circumcision, to confirm the promises made to the Fathers. Rom. 15. viii.

8. But some assert that circumcision was only a sign of carnal descent—a mark of national distinction, and a token of interest in the land of Canaan?

Ans. This is to contradict the Scriptures.

1. It was not always a sign of carnal descent—for he that was born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed, he must needs be circumcised. Gen. 17. xii. xiii.

2. It was not always a mark of national distinction, for the descendants of Ishmael and Esau maintain circumcision as well as the Jews.

3. Nor was it always a token of interest in the land of Canaan, for neither Ishmael nor Esau had any such inheritance.

5. How do you apply circumcision as an argument in favor of Infant Baptism?

Ans. Infants were admitted members of the Church under the Law, and it is no where said that God hath revoked the privilege under the Gospel. The covenant was to Abraham and his seed—Gen. 17. vii.—“The promise of the Gospel is to you and your Children.” Acts 2. xxxix.

Is Baptism the same spiritual sign as that circumcision was formerly?—Yes.

1. A Seal of the righteousness of Faith. Rom. 4. xi. Acts 22. xvi. Gal. 3. xxvii.

2. A sign of regeneration, and a token of the Grace of God. 1 Peter 3. xxi. Rom. 4. iii.

3. A token or badge of the fellowship of the Church. 1 Cor. 12. xiii.

4. Baptism is acknowledged by St. Paul to have succeeded in the place of circumcision. Col. 2. xi. xii.

7. What modern nations practice circumcision besides the Jews?

Ans. All the Mahomedan Nations.

8. Is there any dispute about this rite between them and the Jews?

Ans. Yes—the Mahomedans use the same reasons for postponing circumcision that the Anabaptists do for postponing baptism.

9. Mention some of the reasons?

Ans. The necessity of Faith and Repentance, ignorance of children—Divine authority from the case of Ishmael, who was thirteen years old when circumcised.

10. Are you satisfied with these reasons?

Ans. No.—The wisdom of men in the judgment with God, and the Mahomedans are put to silence by the express command of the Almighty to Abraham.—Be thou circumcised, and shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations.

It is not what man may think expedient, but what God commands, which ought to be the rule of our conduct. Gen. 17. xii.

Job 2. xxi.

11. But as Infants are incapable of Faith and Repentance, it is said they ought not be baptized?

Ans. Of Adults, Faith and Repentance are properly required, but not of Infants. Because they possess already those qualifications for which Faith and Repentance are necessary. Shew me a grown up person who can say that he comes to baptism as pure and innocent as the new born Babe, who has been made a child of grace through the atonement and mediation of their "Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world?"

12. It is said that children can enjoy no spiritual blessings?

Ans. What but a spiritual blessing could our poor and destitute Lord bestow upon the little children when he took them up in his arms and blessed them. Is it not a blessing to dedicate them to God, to receive their religious education, to enter upon the first step of the holy course which leads them to heavenly glory?

on the part of God the infinite treasures of the Gospel—its precious salvation—its enlivening promises—its glorious privileges—its blessed hopes.

13. Can an ordinance so simple confer such benefits?

Ans. Cannot he whose heavenly power rendered the waters of Jordan effectual to heal the Syrian, render them effectual to cleanse the redeemed from the guilt and consequence of sin.

14. But children it is said are incapable of entering into a covenant.

Ans. Is it not the duty of Parents to enter into temporal contracts for their children when evidently for their advantage, how much more spiritual. Deut. 29. x, xi, xii.

15. What was the practice of the Apostles?

Ans. They baptised whole households, which includes children. Acts 16. xxiii.

The Child of a believing Parent is relatively holy. 1 Cor. 7. xiv.

The practice is traced from the primitive Church to the present times—it was no innovation, but natural that children should be admitted into the new covenant, as they had been into the old.

16. Does our Lord leave it optional with us to be baptised or not?

Ans. No.—Math. 23. xix. Mark 16. xvi. John 3. v.

17. What are those to be considered who come to be baptised?

Ans. Recipients of favors.—They do nothing, and can do nothing to merit the benefits conferred.

18. What must they believe who exclude Children from Baptism?

Ans. That the blessed Gospel of the Lord is less indulgent than the rigorous dispensation of the Law.

1. That the sweet innocence of the new born babe is less acceptable to God, than the penitence of the old and wicked offender.

2. That although we are required to become as little children, before we can enter the Kingdom of God, that little children are excluded from being introduced into that Kingdom, because they are such.

Q. That Parents standing by the graves of their infant offspring have no recovered assurance of their salvation and immortality.

A. What reason could justify the exclusion of children from Christian Baptism?

A. A positive law from God—nothing less can warrant such a proceeding.

On the mode of Baptism.

Q. 1. Is dipping, sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, essential to the Sacrament of Baptism?

A. All these methods have been practiced in every age of the Church.

Q. 2. Upon what does the blessing conveyed by Baptism depend?

A. Upon the Grace of God and the disposition of the recipient, and not on the quantity of water or the mode of its application. John 13. viii. 1.

Q. 3. Does not the very term baptized, intimate the necessity of immersion?

A. No.—Baptize signifies water coming upon or poured upon the body, as well as being dipped or immersed in water, nor can it be proved that the word Baptize, ever signifies immersion in the New Testament.

4. How many instances of Baptism are recorded in the New Testament, which seem to bear upon the manner of applying the water?

Ans. Seven,—1. The Baptism of Jesus at Jordan—2. The Baptising at Enon—3. the Baptism of the Eunuch—4. of St. Paul—5. of Cornelius—6. of the Jailor—7. of the three thousand at Jerusalem.

5. What proof of Immersion do these instances afford?

Ans. None,—The three first instances were in the open air, persons and water are mentioned, but nothing about immersion; in the private house, and the Jail in the City, the presumption is much against immersion. The three thousand are said to have been baptised in one day. It is well known that water was scarce at Jerusalem; the Pool of Siloam which was nearest to the Temple where St. Peter preached, was too small for such numbers, and from its virtues the Apostles durst not have made use of it, hated as they were by the Jews. The Brook Cedron in the Valley below Jerusalem, was dry at that season of the year, and even during the rains, exhibited a very small stream of muddy water.

6. Can it be proved that any person baptised was by the water at all?

Ans. Philip and the Eunuch are said to have gone down and to have came up out of the water, but the Greek words may with equal propriety be translated—"went down to the water, and came up from the water."

7. But is it said our Lord came up out of Jordan?

Ans. It does not appear that John Baptised by Immersion. He came we are told baptising with water, not in water, and it is difficult to conceive, that unless he dwelt continually in the water, he could have immersed the great multitudes that daily went forth to his Baptism.

8. Was then Immersion never practised?

Ans. Yea,—it was used in the Primitive Church as well as other modes, but it has never been considered exclusively essential, except by one denomination of Christians which arose 1500 years after the birth of Christ.

The Hebrews were baptised to Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 1 Cor. 10, i. ii.—Matth. 3, xi. speaks of being baptised by the Holy Ghost, which in the promise referred to Ezek. 36, xii &c. is called sprinkling. When whole households were baptised in the night, at Acts 16, xxxiii, xxxv. it is most probable that it was done by sprinkling.

Q. Is there any argument in favor of immersion to be inferred from the expression, "buried with Christ in baptism" Col. 2, xii?

Ans. Just as much as can be inferred from the expression "Crucified with Christ, or in baptism also ye are circumcised." Col. 2, xii.

10. What particular objections can you offer against baptism by immersion?

Ans. In cold Countries it is impracticable the greater part of the year; to the feeble, the sick, and new born, it might often cause instant death; and shall baptism be refused to those whose infirmities exclude immersion! Because immersion is sometime indecorous, agitates the spirits, and disqualifies the recipient for those religious exercises that are suitable to the occasion.

11. What further objections can you offer to immersion as essential?

Ans. Because it unchurches the greater part of the Christian world, and therefore produces uncharitableness. Had not a difference of applying water in this Sacrament been admitted without prejudice to its due dispensation, it would have been inconsistent with the intended universality of the Christian Religion, and would have fettered it in one of its most essential points, in a manner nearly as prejudicial to its general propagation as the going up to Jerusalem among the Jews, and the pilgrimage to Mecca among the Mahomedans.

12. What are the essential constituents of Baptism as laid down in Scripture?

Ans. Water, and the form of words appointed by our Saviour. Mat. 28. xix.

13. What are the unessential circumstances of Baptism?

Ans. The time of its administration—by day or night—the place—in a house, Church, or open air—at a font, fountain or river—the manner by sprinkling, pouring, washing or immersion,—for Christ has not legislated as to the mode of Baptism, or the quantity of water, but leaves them to the discretion of the Church.

14. Do you reject those who are baptised by immersion.

Ans. No—we admit immersion where it is preferred as one of the modes of applying water in Baptism; but we contend that the exclusive doctrine of immersion has no support either from reason or revelation;

and that Baptism by washing, sprinkling or pouring, is as valid, acceptable and scriptural as Baptism by immersion.

Q. What is your conclusion on this point?

A. That the manner of applying the water of Baptism is not essential to the efficacy of the Sacrament, provided it be always so applied as to express the spiritual association of which it is the symbol or pledge; and when we consider that the benefits which this ordinance represents and conveys are more frequently expressed in the types and language of Scripture, by sprinkling, than by any other way, we shall be well satisfied with the mode used by the Church in which we have received this Holy ordinance.

2nd SECTION.

On Confirmation.

1. What hath the Church ordained respecting Confirmation?

A. "That none shall be admitted to the Holy Communion until such time as they are Confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be Confirmed."—Rubric.

2. What is the design of Confirmation?

Ans. It is so called, because I do hereby solemnly renew, ratify and confirm, the engagements of my baptism.

3. Does Confirmation teach any thing besides?

Ans. Yes—by imposition of hands, and the prayers of the Church, I am taught to look up to God for the Grace of His Holy Spirit.

4. What doth the imposition of the hands of the Bishop particularly teach?

Ans. It certifieth me, as by a sign, of the favor and goodness of God towards me.

5. What authority doth the Scripture afford for this institution?

Ans. Hebrews 6. i. & Acts 8. xvii.

6. Why doth the Church appropriate the administration of this sacred rite to the Bishop, and not allow it to the inferior Clergy?

Ans. From the example of the Apostles. Acts 8. xiv. xviii.

7. What authority does the Church furnish for the use of this rite.

Ans. The uniform practise of the Church from the earliest times. St. Jerome declares, that the custom of the whole Christian Church has adopted it as a law, and the primitive Christians deemed it necessary to the completion of Baptism.

Ans. Prov. 8. xvii.

11. What motive should influence you to this?

Ans. 1 Cor. 5. xix. xl.

12. What benefit may you hope by the Divine blessing may result from this solemnity?

Ans. That Divine truth may be more deeply impressed upon me: that I may feel a more sensible alliance to the Church of Christ, and be more resolved and determined, like Joshua, to serve the Lord.

13. What encouragement do you derive from the promises of God, and the prayers of the Church?

Ans. God hath promised his Holy Spirit to them who ask it—Luke 11. xiii. and the Grace of God always accompanies the use of those means which he hath appointed for the obtaining it. Acts 18. n. vii.

14. What benefits would the Church derive if this solemnity were duly and piously observed?

Ans. She would see "her sons growing up as young plants, and her daughters as the polished corners of the Temple."—Psalms 144. xii.

10. What is Quinquagesima?

12. What is Lent?

Ans. A time of abstinence and humilia-

4th SECTION.

The Government of the Christian Church.

1. What order of Government did the Church assume before the Law given by Moses?

Answer. It appears from Scripture, that every Patriarch was both Priest and King in his own house. Gen. 2. 12. and 18. 18. Job 42. 12.

2. What was the order of the Church under the Law?

Answer. It consisted of the three fold order of the High Priest, the Priests and the Levites.

3. What was the order of the Church when our Blessed Saviour was upon Earth?

Answer. It preserved this three fold distinction; our Lord Jesus Christ himself as the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, constituted the two inferior orders of the twelve Apostles and the seventy Disciples. Mark 3. 14. Luke 10. 1.

4. What was the order of the Church after the Ascension of our Lord?

14. What was the order of the Church after our blessed Lord's ascension into Heaven?

Ans. The Apostles succeeded as Bishops of the Christian Church, and ordained subordinate to them the Priests and Deacons. Titus 1. v. 1 Tim. 3. i. & 1 Tim. 5. xii.

15. Was this order generally received in the primitive Church?

Ans. The three fold distinction of Bishops, Priests and Deacons, was then universally acknowledged; nor was it ever called in question for one thousand five hundred years after the time of Christ.

16. How do you prove that this order should be now observed in the Church?

Ans. It may be inferred from the general aspect of the new Testament, and it is most plainly asserted by the earliest writers. The Angels presiding over the seven Churches addressed in the Revelations were all exercising the Episcopal Office—Rev. 2 and 3 Chap.—St. James presided as Bishop over the Church of Jerusalem when it consisted of more than ten thousand persons, who could not therefore all meet for public worship under one roof—Timothy and Titus had Episcopal authority over

7. What early writers advance this position?

Ans. St. Clement, who is mentioned by St. Paul—St. Ignatius, who was Bishop of Antioch in the life time of the Apostle Tertullian, Cyprian and all the Fathers.—St. Jerome observes—“what Aaron, his Sons and the Levites were in the Temple, that the Bishops, the Priests and the Deacons claim to be in the Church.”

8. What is the appropriate office of a Christian Bishop?

Ans. The Ordaining of Christian Ministers—Confirming baptised persons, and the jurisdiction or government of the Church, and consecrating places for public worship.

9. What is the Priest's Office?

Ans. To govern the people committed to his charge—to administer Baptism and the Holy Communion, and to perform other Holy Offices.

10. What is the office of a Deacon?

Ans. To assist the Priest in Divine Service—to Catechise—to preach, and bap-the Infants, and administer to the necessities of the poor.

11. Has any private christian a right to take upon himself the Ministerial Office?

Ans. No man taketh this honor to himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. Heb. 5. iv.

12. But if a man conceives himself inwardly called, does not that supersede the necessity of other authority?

Ans. By no means, for even Christ himself, in whom the spirit dwelt without measure, glorified not himself to be made a High Priest. Heb. 5. v.—Timothy, the first Bishop of Ephesus, was ordained by the imposition of hands of St. Paul and the Presbytery, and is himself charged to lay hands suddenly on no man. 1 Tim. 4. xiv. 1 Tim. 5. xxii. and 2 Tim. 1. vi.

13. What respect and obedience are due to the governors of the Christian Church?

Ans. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves, for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account. Heb. 13. xvii.

Application of the whole as a daily rule of life.

1. Who was the founder of the Christian Religion?

Ans. Jesus Christ the Son of God, who came down from Heaven to teach us the way to Heaven.

2. What rule of life then must the Christian follow if he hopes to be saved?

Ans. He must follow the rule of life taught by Jesus Christ—love God, and hate sin.

3. How is he to learn to love God?

Ans. He must pray earnestly to God to teach him, to love him above all things, and with his whole heart.

4. Does not Jesus Christ teach us to love one another?

Ans. Yes, He commands us to love all persons without exception for his sake, to wish well to all, to pray for all, and never to allow ourselves any thought, word or deed, to the prejudice of any one, not even our enemies, whom we are also to forgive in all sincerity of heart.

5. What other rules does Jesus Christ give to all who desire to be his Disciples?

Ans. To renounce our own will, our humors, inclinations and passions, because they are naturally prone to evil, and must be corrected by self denial and brought into obedience to Christ. Math. 16. xlv.

6. What is meant by taking up our cross?

Ans. Patiently submitting to, and willingly embracing the labors and sufferings of this short life, walking in the footsteps of Christ and imitating his virtues.

7. What are the virtues we are to learn of Christ?

Ans. To be meek and humble of heart—to be obedient unto death, and to seek to do in all things the will of our Father who is in Heaven; and for this purpose we must watch and pray, and fight against all evil suggestions of our spiritual enemies, and our own corrupt hearts, not depending upon ourselves, but depending upon God alone.

8. How should you spend the day?

Ans. After rising from our beds we must kneel in humble prayer and supplication to God, thank him for his goodness and mercy to us and all men, entreat pardon for our sins, pray for grace and his blessed assistance, that all our thoughts, words and actions during the day may be acceptable in his sight: we must also pray for our friends and our enemies, and that God for Christ's sake, would grant mercy, grace and salvation to all.

9. What are you to do as to your eating, drinking, sleeping, and amusements?

Ans. All these things I must use with moderation, agreeable to the will of God, and with a good intention to please him.

10. By what rules ought you to guide the employments and actions of the day?

Ans. By observing the two precepts given by our Saviour, loving God and my Neighbour—

1. Raising my heart often to God, and praying that I may love him in time and eternity.

2. Embracing every opportunity of doing good to my fellow creatures, by administering as far as I am able to their temporal and spiritual necessities.

3. Diligently attending to the duties of my station, and with all singleness of heart, proving myself as a member of Society, and of my family, a sincere follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

11. How ought you to finish the day?

When I retire to rest I ought never to neglect the duty of self-examination—

1. By placing myself in the presence of God, as it is incumbent on me to do at all times when I pray; and begging his light and help to enable me to discover my sins and to repent of them.
2. By considering how I have spent the day from morning till night, in what manner I have performed my religious and relative duties; what blessings I have received of God, and what offences I have been guilty of against him or my fellow creatures, by commission or omission.
3. By giving thanks to God for all his blessings, entreating pardon for all my sins, endeavouring sincerely to repent and be sorry for them, with hearty resolutions of amendment.
4. By concluding this examination with prayer to God, commending my soul into his hands, earnestly entreating the assistance of His Holy Spirit, that I may possess the best dispositions of love and conformity to his blessed will, as if I were to die that night.

12. What ought to be the great study and business of a Christian, throughout the course of his life?

Ans. To work out his Eternal Salvation, by believing the doctrines of the Lord Jesus Christ, and obeying his precepts—and this he does:—

1. By cherishing that Faith, which receives with humble confidence, all that God has revealed to his Church, and produces good works.

2. And that hope which enables him to expect with a steadfast reliance on God's veracity, all the good things which he has promised; Grace in this life, and Glory hereafter.

3. And that Charity which crowns the whole, by enabling him to love God, and his Neighbours.

APPENDIX.

Lecture 1st.—Gen. 31. v.— Comfort—Brother Jacob—Annex of Jacob spread into joy—The mother's answer of the Patriarch to his Brother Jacob's question: "They are the Children which God has graciously given me."—A mother with her children should be one of the most beautiful and lovely sights in this world's creation of God—Children being an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord, should be devoted to Religion to Christ, and carefully instructed in the truths of his Gospel—This knowledge best conveyed in the way of conversation, than by question and answer—a mode of instruction, when it can be used, far superior to preaching—Reasons for Creeds or Catechisms and abridgements of Religion—Catechising used in all ages—before the Lord—under the Law—under the Gospel—in the primitive Church—among all Christians anxious to preserve the Faith as it was once delivered of the Saints—Our object in the present course is—1st During the next eight Sundays after Evening Prayer to give a short Lecture on the evidences of Christianity adapted to all classes of the Congregation—2nd After the Lecture, to teach the Children who are yet Confirmed the truths contained in the Church Catechism, sub-joining such information as may elucidate the questions and make them more easy of apprehension.

Lecture 2nd.—Of Religion in general. Rom. 1. xx.— The distinction of Religion into natural and revealed apt to produce confusion of ideas—God speaks in his word and by his word—The voice of the same glorious Being speaks in both—The material world and the human constitution sufficient to convince men of the Being of a God and the principles which constitute their well being here—But it requires a distinct revelation to establish a future state and our connexion with it:—Our origin—our destination—our errors, and their cause—The principle which renders these sources of information useful, is Faith, or that sentiment of trust which one intelligent Being reposes in another—a principle inherent in the human mind, but cherished by knowledge and experience and strengthened by reason—Hence it is no mark of wisdom to despise the sources of human knowledge and human reason; still less to alight the light of Revelation, which alone conducts to just and profitable conclusions—Reason is the compass by which we steer our course—Revelation our Polar Star—Faith the living principle that supports us by the way, and guides us to immortality—The visible things of God lead human reason to a conviction of his infinite power and goodness—This conviction includes Religion—Through goodness and mercy God creates man—hence veneration, submission, love, gratitude, or Religion, the golden chain which keeps Earth suspended from Heaven—Where men are found without Religion, reason appears almost extinct—But true Religion soon corrupted without express revelation—Proved by the History of all ages—Hence the necessity of revelation—God will not refuse to his noblest work, a light necessary to make it happy.

Lecture 3d—On Divine Revelation. 2 Tim. 3 xvi.
The Scriptures—plenary Inspiration, includes importance of—Inspiration of two kinds—Direction and suggestion—Value of the Scriptures as Historical documents—Moses the Historian of the Creation—Heathen accounts derived from Genesis—Date of the Creation—Original condition of our first Parents—The fall—its consequences—extent of human depravity—The Patriarchs—The Law—The Prophets—Jewish Religion full of grossness—God change—without Temple, Priests or sacrifices—almost extinct, unless what refers to the Christian religion—The Mosaic dispensation evidently of a preparatory nature.

Lecture 7th. On the Doctrines and Principles of the Gospel.—St. John 7, xlii. Sublimity and excellency of the Doctrines of Christianity.—Being, perfection and Providence of the one living and true God.—The guilt and condemnation of man.—Redemption through the Sacrifice of the Son of God.—Sacraments and other means of Grace.—The Resurrection of the dead.—The day of Judgment.—The idea of an atonement natural—necessity of the Gospel Sacrifice.—Repentance, divine mercy.—The power of Christ to forgive Sin.—Purity of Christian morals.—Chiefly mild and soothing—humility.—Forgiveness of injuries.—Connects the present with the future life—begins with the heart—refers always to God—unites with the doctrines in producing sincere obedience and sanctity of character—the promises and privileges of the Gospel, attached to certain dispositions and states of mind—the sanctions by which this purity of morals is ultimately enforced.

Lecture 8th.—On Christian Faith and Divine Influence. —1 John 5, xii.—We must receive Christianity in the simplicity of heart and Faith of our Saviour—thus received the objections of its enemies will be found vain, frivolous and inadmissible—reasonable difficulties—its late introduction—its want of universality—the corrupt lives of Christians—Faith unites Christians to their Saviour, in spirit, principles and hopes—It is the gift of God wrought in the mind by the influence of the Holy Spirit—the conviction which it operates, is different from that which arises only from reasoning—Doctrine of Divine influence—honorable to human nature—effects produced by the Spirit—change not always reformation—Influence of the spirit discernable by its effects—manner of operation different—the effects always the same—importance of ascertaining our spiritual condition—sources of deception.

Lecture 9th.—Conclusion. St. John 8, 12.—The social effects of Christianity on Nations—its principles in which welfare of states and individuals consist—has banished many frightful evils—gradually banishing more.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a review of the literature on the topic. It starts with a general introduction to the field, followed by a detailed discussion of the various methods used in the study. The second part of the paper presents the results of the study, which are then discussed in the context of the existing literature. The final part of the paper concludes with a summary of the findings and some suggestions for future research.
